THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION 202 SKYLAND BLVD. TUSCALOOSA, AL 35406

Lucy Kubiszyn
1986

ANOTHER SHELTON SUCCESS STORY

Maxine Farris, former Shelton State student, was named the Most Outstanding Senior in the University of Alabama Capstone College of Nursing.

The MONDAY REPORT will begin a new column each week, one which will highlight the achievements of our present and former students. Any faculty or staff member or student at the college is asked to give any information dealing with student success to MONDAY REPORT editor Lucy Kubiszyn.

LOST AND FOUND: ONE CALCULATOR IN THE PARKING LOT. ANYONE WHO HAS LOST A CALCULATOR PLEASE CHECK THE LOST AND FOUND DEPARTMENT IN THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF STUDENTS.

EARLY REGISTRATION FOR SUMMER QUARTER IS SCHEDULED FOR MAY 21-23 AT THE JUNIOR COLLEGE. MARK THESE DATES ON YOUR CALENDAR TO BE ASSURED OF THE SCHEDULE YOU NEED. A NEW TIME FRAME WILL BE INSTITUTED THIS SUMMER. THERE WILL BE NO CLASSES ON FRIDAY.

JUNIOR LEAGUE AND SHELTON STATE OFFER WORKSHOP

"PROMOTIONS FOR NONPROFITS," a free workshop designed especially for people engaged in public relations for nonprofit organizations will be held on Wednesday, May 7, from 8:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. in room 87 of the junior college. Sponsored by The Junior League of Tuscaloosa and Shelton State Community College, the workshop will offer local citizens the opportunity to gain a better insight in promoting their own organizations.

Registration and coffee will begin at 8:30 a.m. At 9 a.m. Kathy Holland, Harsville and Company Advertising Agency from Montgomery, will speak on "Is Your Image in the Community Really What You Want it to Be?" At 10:45 a.m. Cathy Gassenheimer and Nanette Garrett from the Montgomery Junior League will offer "Successful PR Tips."

Lunch will be served at noon at no cost to the workshop participants.

At 1:15 p.m. a panel discussion will be held on "Planning Effective Media Relations." Members of the panel will be Julie DeBardaladen, director of public information, Alabama College System; Johnnie Blackburn, WCFT-TV Channel 33; Jack Wheat, Tuscaloosa News; Clyde Price, Radio Station WACT. Lucy Kubiszyn will serve as panel moderator.

Registration for the workshop is required as the class size will be limited. To register Contact Mrs. Kubiszyn.

WOMEN IN THE 21ST CENTURY

WOMEN IN THE 21ST CENTURY, A TWO-DAY CONFERENCE DESIGNED TO EXAMINE VARIOUS AREAS OF WOMEN'S LIVES DURING THE NEXT 20-30 YEARS, WILL BE HELD AT SHELTON STATE ON May 13-14, 1986. SPONSORED BY THE SEX EQUITY PROGRAM OF THE COLLEGE, THE CONFERENCE WILL FOCUS ON CAREER OPTIONS, EXPECIALLY THOSE CONSIDERED NONTRADITIONAL, WHICH WILL BE AVAILABLE TO WOMEN IN THE YEAR 2000.

The cost of the conference is $20.00 which includes all materials, a luncheon at noon and wine and cheese party at 4:30 p.m. on May 13.

WOMEN IN THE 21ST CENTURY WILL FEATURE OUTSTANDING SPEAKERS WHO WILL ADDRESS AREAS OF CONCERN FOR WOMEN. THE keynote speaker for Tuesday, May 13, is Barbara Woodley Mountain, district judge in the Sixth Judicial Circuit, Place #1. Judge Mountain is the first woman to serve as a district judge for Tuscaloosa County. She is also a wife and mother of a young baby.

The keynote speaker for Wednesday, May 14, is Senator Ann Bedsole, R-Mobile, a member of the Alabama Legislature. Senator Bedsole has won the respect of a great number of Alabamians for her work with the Alabama Legislature. This will be Senator Bedsole's first visit to Shelton State.

Edie Hand, director of Community Relations for AMI West Alabama Hospital and "Pearl" of Pearl 'n Paw of TV commercials will be the speaker for the luncheon scheduled for O'Riley's restaurant on Tuesday, May 13.

Ms. Hand is quickly gaining recognition as one of the most talented performers in the state. She has appeared on a number of regional and national television commercials with her characters. She is president of Hand and Hand Advertising, Inc. of Birmingham.

To register or for more information on the conference, contact Lucy Kubiszyn at the junior college.

SHELTON HOSTS SOCIAL STUDIES FAIR

In one of the largest competititon and exhibits ever held at the college, Shelton State played host to the District VII Social Studies Fair. Work was exhibited by elementary, middle, and high school social studies students from across the state. Chairman of the event was Bruce Bizzoco.

BYE BYE BIRDIE TICKETS ON SALE

TICKETS FOR "BYE BYE BIRDIE" ARE NOW ON SALE IN THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF STUDNETS AT THE JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION. THE MUSICAL WHICH IS SPONSORED BY THE MUSIC DEPARTMENT OF THE COLLEGE AND THE SHELTON STATE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION WILL BE HELD ON MAY 15-16.

THE PERFORMANCE ON MAY 15 IS STANDARD THEATRE PERFORMANCE AND THE TICKETS ARE $4.00. TICKETS FOR MAY 16 INCLUDE DINNER AND ARE ON SALE FOR $12.00. ALL PROCEEDS WILL GO TO THE SSAA TO PROVIDE SCHOLARSHIPS FOR THE MUSIC PROGRAM.

NURSING NEWS

The March 1986 practical nursing class had a pinning and capping ceremoney recently. Those students completing the course wer: Juanetta Bogan; Tim Boman; Susan Boyd; Barbara Byrd; Sue Shannell; Judy Gasgow; Dorothy Harper; Alicia Hines; Tammy Jennings; Darlene Jones; Mary Kemp; Joy Lollar; Melissa Meggs; Sheila Montgomery; Glorid Prince; Synthia Simmons; Doris Stymon; Susan Vaughm; Donne Wallace. Class officers are Boman; Byrd; and Jones.